From a date palm plantation surrounded by hills and a neighbouring mountain, spring, river, stream, reserve and valley, Henkries Dates provide the best medjool variety. Reward your diet with succulent sun-baked and river nourished dates.

Ever wondered why they're called "nature's power fruit"? Dates bear impeccable health properties and are impacted with healthy fibres, minerals and vitamins. From arid land with its variances, Henkries Dates are the ultimate health booster in avoiding sugary preservatives. Yes indeed, we grow natural sweetness!! Harvesting from 4000 fruit bearing trees. Goodness that comes with the best shelf life is guaranteed. Henkries Dates are packaged in various grades. For baking and date-bread – we also supply the market with seedless packaged dates.

About Us

Henkries Dates is fully owned by the Northern Cape Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development and set to transfer ownership to the current crop of the enterprises' employees for their economic empowerment. Whilst firmly focusing on garnering the highest packaging accreditations (local and global), ours is to adhere to the best practices at all times in guaranteeing the markets the best quality product.

Produce and Market: Package and supply to all national Supermarkets that are Springbok based.

Brand Value Enhancement: Access markets beyond the Northern Cape and international.

Government Spent: R6 million +.
